

Sundays @ 7:00

A journey through Romans

During our Sunday evening services we shall be exploring the gospel through the eyes of Sant Paul in his letter to the the Christians in Rome.

This letter has fascinated christians through the centuries from Augustine to Luther to the great theologian of the 20th century, Karl Barth. It has a pivitol place in the birth of the reformation and on Sundays at seven we will explore why it still has much to say about how we live and who we are.

This series is for everyone wishing to go a little deeper by looking together at Paul's great letter. It will be done in a teaching style but with plenty of room for questions and comments.
