winter 2019

As we read through the Christmas story it always strikes me that the first people to know about the birth of Jesus were shepherds.

Shepherds were outcasts in many ways. They lived out on the hills with their sheep. They had to stay with them all the time to protect them from wild animals and to find them food and water. All that meant that they couldn't go to church. They didn't get to go to the religious festivals. They couldn't really keep the rules about ritual washing to keep the very strict purity laws.

There were loads of reasons not to pick a bunch of shepherds... But God chose them to be the first ones to hear the good news of Jesus' birth anyway.

And not only that. They also got an invite to visit the baby from a choir of angels!

It wonder how they felt? What they thought? Who us? Surely not? We can't be good enough for this honour!

But they were!

Just like we are... Even with all of our faults and failings, God chooses us to receive the invite to come and meet Jesus. The shepherds went and found the baby and in that moment their lives were changed forever.

I wonder... Will we accept that same invitation and have our lives changed too?

I hope so!

Blessings this Christmas! Stewart

St Ninian's Church Hall
Vicars Road

Hi Folks!

Well, here we are almost at Christmas, whatever happened to Autumn! I hope you will come along to some of the services and activities planned for over the Christmas period.

Another busy few months in our church calendar and how fortunate are we at St Ninian's to have such a warm welcoming church. I've lost count of how many times people comment on the welcome they receive and it's down to you as the congregation, so thank you and keep up the good work.

I said in my last letter we had organised some fundraising events, we raised £610 from the Guild Fashion Sale, which will help church funds. We had a coffee evening for McMillan nurses, which raised almost £1200 for a very worthy cause. Thank you to all who buy tickets and support these events.

Some of our dear friends, members and elders have passed away and our thoughts and prayers are with the families of David Carmicheal, Janette Robb, Jean McPherson, Margaret Cranston, Douglas Waddell, Alec Pate Senior, who were faithful members and from the community Duncan Cooper and William Forsyth.

Stewart baptised Harry James Edward Perna who behaved perfectly and had a smile for everyone.

praying for others

As most of you know we pray for a street in the village each week and although some of you can't join us at prayers on a Tuesday and Thursday morning at 9.15am in the church you can still pray with us. A list of streets and dates are on the following page.

17.11.19	Rhymie Bank
24.11.19	Ringwell Gardens
1.12.19	Secauren Avenue
8.12.19	Spinningdale
15.12.19	Todstable Gardens
22.12.19	Watt Court
29.12.19	Weavers Way
5.1.20	Weavers Court
19.1.20	Woodside Walk
26.1.20	Stonehouse Hospital
2.2.20	Cander Centre
9.2.20	Lifestyles
16.2.20	Members in Blackwood
23.2.20	University Hospitals Hairmyres, Wishaw and Monklands
1.3.20	Glasgow hospitals
8.3.20	Cancer hospitals and hospices
15.3.20	Stoney Kids
22.3.20	Youth organisations
29.3.20	Hope Cafe

If you are new to the village and have received a copy of our magazine, please feel free to come and join us on a Sunday morning at 11am. We also have lots of activities going on in our halls and would love to welcome you among us.

God Bless,
Margaret (Session Clerk)

from Bill... as the Year End Approaches Once Again

Doesn't time just fly, especially when deadlines are ahead of you, whether that might be Link articles, Year End Accounts or OSCR submissions!! I cannot believe that I will be compiling my third set of year end accounts very soon. So it is a good opportunity to let the wider congregation know how we are doing financially, with the final quarter figures to come.

I reported the year to date position to both the Finance Committee and Board at the beginning of October and I think a fair assessment is that we are very much fire-fighting month to month. I want to concentrate on the day to day running of our finances via the General Account. Unfortunately, as I have mentioned before, there is very little consistency to the income figures; fluctuation is probably a good word.

To demonstrate that fact we have a low-income figure of £4,959 in June against a high figure of £14,294 in May, total income to the end of September being £64,186. This in turn leads to a scenario of what can be paid versus what can I delay until we are better off, no different to probably a number of household finances. Therefore, as with income, there is no consistency to meeting our expenses. The reality is that monthly commitments we should be making are in arrears, with an expense figure of £64,451 to the end of September.

This on-going challenge is concerning to say the least and I wouldn't be acting appropriately if I did not make you all aware of the precarious position we find ourselves in. That said, I am extremely grateful to the fund-raising team, the coffee morning ladies, the Guild and all other organisations who contribute financially to the upkeep of our Church but I need to come a bit cap in hand to the wider congregation, specifically on the weekly / monthly giving. Even if we can collectively address rising costs / inflation and reflect this in our giving that simple bit of arithmetic would help greatly. Trust me, I do not enjoy continually highlighting our plight and the constant need to address our income position but it is very relevant to the future of our Church.

Enjoy the festive period as it approaches and please support the number of events that St Ninian's are making available. It's a busy period but a massively important one in our Christian calendar.

God Bless
Bill

A Simple Formula

Conflict has been prevalent in our world since the dawning of time. Here in the UK we are mostly distanced from warfare. Despite our country's involvement in war in recent years, we are no longer really exposed to the devastating effects, besides the images and events reported in the news from war torn countries. I don't think war is something we turn our attention to very often, and when we do we are often completely overwhelmed. It's easy to feel powerless in the face of war as a topical issue. But what if world peace could be solved in just six words?

The 2011 film, That's What I Am, sees a teenager called Andy learning to overcome his prejudice towards some of his less popular peers when his favourite teacher, Mr Simon, pairs him up for a school project with the geekiest boy in class. During the course of the film, Mr Simon wins a sports car in a competition. Following a distressing bullying incident, he reveals to the class how he came to be the winner. The assignment for all entrants was to find a solution for world peace in just twenty-five words. Mr Simon solved it in just six:

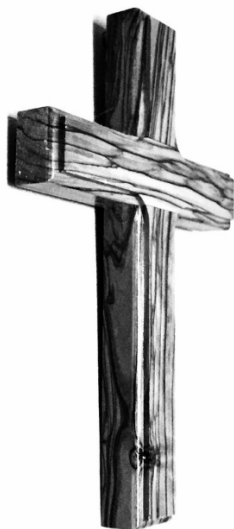

Human Dignity + Compassion = Peace

This is one of the most powerful moments in the film. What really strikes me is how Jesus seemed to fully embody this formula during his time on earth. He had compassion for everybody he met, reaching out to the poor and diseased, the lowest of the low, healing and loving them, regardless of their place in society. At the same time he wasn't afraid to speak up for others, and challenge the bullying, belittling Pharisees, but he always acted with the utmost dignity. He was greatly loved by many who met him, and he brought peace into the lives of those who would let him.

Maybe it's wishful thinking, but I believe that if everyone put Mr Simon's formula into practice, we would gradually see a transformation in a world that has always been afflicted by war. It's a movement that ultimately begins with us. This depends, however, on a change of attitude on our part. The band Switchfoot sing "We've been blowing up, we're the issue, it's our condition... We are the fuse and ammunition." We may not be involved in war on a wider scale, but we are drawn into small, often petty, battles on a daily basis. We are not always very kind to one another.

We need to start noticing the people around us, acknowledging them as people with feelings and needs that may have a profound effect on their behaviour. Keeping this in mind, we should practice being a little more patient and tolerant, especially towards the people who really annoy us! If we can learn to respond to negative behaviour with grace, rather than in kind, then we are effectively laying down our arms and calling a cease-fire on the situation. That's not to say that we should not stand up for what we believe is right, but learn to handle it with civility, rather than allowing our emotions to explode. Of course, this is much easier said than done, but ultimately by praying for the people around us, particularly the people we find difficult, we should, in time, gain more understanding of others, and in turn feel more compassion for them.

St Ninian's Stonehouse

We would like to thank Stewart and the wider congregation at St Ninian's for what was a very exciting if not extremely busy month of August! On Sunday 25th August we took our places at the front of the church to be welcomed in as its newest members. Although slightly nervous, we both found it a genuinely enjoyable and uplifting experience. The following Friday, 30th August, we were back at the front of the church, although on this occasion, to be married!

We may be biased, but we absolutely loved every single minute of the service and on speaking to our guests, know that they all did too, with one person even commenting that, "If my minister was more like yours', I'd go to church more often!".

We are so grateful to Stewart for the effort he made and the time he took to personalise our service as well as the warmth and humour with which it was delivered. We are also very grateful for the lengths he went to in ensuring we were both at ease on what could have otherwise been a very stressful day!

It is a pleasure to be members of the congregation at St Ninian's and thank you all for how welcome you have made us feel.

Mr and Mrs Edwards

Alex, Myra and Family would like to thank everyone for the cards, flowers, thoughts and prayers for us on the death of Alex's dad, Sandy. They have been a great comfort to us at this difficult time. Special thanks to Stewart for supporting us through this sad journey.

The Cranston Family would like to say thank you to everyone at St Ninian's for the help and support given to them when Margaret died. It has been a great comfort. We are also delighted to report the magnificent sum of £668 has been donated to Christian Aid following the retiring collection at her funeral.

Many thanks for the cards, flowers and kind expressions of sympathy shown following the sad passing of my mother-in-law, Mary Law. Mary would have been 100 years young on 16th February. Once again, thank you.

Sandra Law

Thank you for the flowers I received on 6th October ~ they were much appreciated.

Linda Wilson

I would like to say a bit 'Thank You!' for the lovely flowers and cards which I received for my special birthday and our Golden Wedding in September. Ian and I appreciated your best wishes and thoughtfulness.

and a visit from Santa!

We started off the new session in October with Jack Geddes from Glasgow City Mission who gave a very interesting talk and photos of the day to day running of the mission.

Also in October we had the Taylor Fashion Sale which was very amusing with Brian at his best.

Monday 11th November was our Guest Night and The Revellers provided the entertainment that evening. A thoroughly enjoyable evening with home baking, tea and coffee.

Monday 9th December is the Christmas Dinner. If you would like to come along please see Joyce Millar or myself and we will put your name down.

We start off the New Year with Jimmy Jamieson and friends on Monday 13th January so we will look forward to a good night.

Thank you to everyone who has supported our work this year. Have a lovely Christmas and New Year and we will see you all soon!

God Bless,

Used Stamps

I have just emptied the used stamp box in the vestibule and have been encouraged by the amount of used stamps, so please keep up the good work. The World Mission Stamp Appeal is 50 years old this year (poster on the notice board at front of the church).

Coming up to Christmas this is the one time of the year when you get a bit extra mail, so keep collecting your used stamps!

I also have a few people who collect used stamps through their work so if you could that, it would be greatly appreciated.

Thanks again,
Norma Johnstone

from The Coffee Ladies

St Ninian's Church Choir

I hope you are enjoying the hymns on a Sunday. You may have noticed we have been singing a psalm every Sunday chosen by Stewart. It is good to re-visit these as they have a lot to say to us.

We are well underway in our rehearsals for the Christmas season and really enjoying the two pieces Lindsey has chosen for us. One is, 'You'll be in my heart' by Phill Collins, and the other is 'Christmas Star' by John Williams. Both are uplifting and tuneful and we are sure you will enjoy hearing them.

We are always keen to welcome new members so don't be shy, join us at 9.45am on Sunday mornings for practice.

Freewill Offering Envelopes

At a recent finance meeting, I was commenting about the price of FWO Envelopes which cost the church £5 per set. Quite a number of people don't use any and some only a few! Someone jokingly suggested we charge for them and everyone laughed but, all joking aside, is it really such a bad idea?! Please consider that if you don't use them you are costing the church money ... Perhaps we should think of charging £5 to anyone who doesn't use any or uses less than 5 or maybe charge everyone £5 which would actually be an extra donation to church funds! I hope this gives you food for thought and maybe you can share those thoughts with me?

Envelopes for 2020 will be distributed in the middle of November. If you consider changing to a standing order, or to alter your way of giving, please speak to either myself or Bill (Storrie, our treasurer. Also if you pay tax please see me about changing to Gift Aid - no charge!

As always, thank you for listening.

2020 diaries

We hope that our small church diaries will be available soon (date yet to be confirmed by supplier). If you're interested in purchasing a diary can you please speak to Anne Law. The price of £1.50 or 4 for £5 should remain the same.

For your diary ~ World Day of Prayer

This event will take place on Friday 6th March 2020 focusing on the text 'Rise Take up Your Mat and Walk'. In March 2019, with our friends from the Paterson Church, we tried a new approach and had ELEVENSES, which turned out to be very successful raising £170. We hope to use the same format in 2020. The venue this year will be in the Paterson Church. Pencil in your new diary /calendar Friday 6th March @11am that would be great.
