Just to say... I am not sure where to begin with my introduction except please, please read what's within!! There is so much news and information that requires your attention, I would hate you not to know what is happening at St Ninian's. To aid you in supporting events, I have created a diary page to help you. I know that there are more fund raising ideas being proposed so remember that the Hamilton Advertiser has a copy of the weekly intimations if you want to keep abreast of what is happening at church. It's not all about fund raising but news about our vacancy and what's been happening over the summer months is also included in this magazine.

I would also like to praise the congregation of St Ninian's for their ongoing support to local businesses. This compliment was passed on to me one day last week. Therefore may I once more encourage you to read our advertisers' section and consider them in any shopping decisions you have to make in order to try and 'Keep it Stonehouse'. We have a few new ventures advertising in the magazine for the first time. For those of you who may be housebound or use the bypass the old Royal Bank of Scotland building is now a dry cleaners. We have a new baby shop next to Split Enz with a savings club to make it easier to make purchases and a range of beautiful outfits for gifts. Instead of nipping into Strathaven for a coffee, keep it local and meet up with a friend at The Violet bakers and coffee shop I have heard nothing but compliments from customers so far. Last but not least please remember the Post Office is under new management and is now restocked with a new range of goods and gifts at competitive prices. They also have the book swap library so if you love a good read but haven't the time to go up to the life styles library then please use this local initiative and have a wee browse around the shop.

Finally if you are ever feeling like you need some 'space' in your busy life then click on the church web site and listen to a visual liturgy... it may just be the tonic you need.

Take care

Margaret McM

Don't forget to save stamps from your post at home and in your workplace and pop them in the box in the vestibule.

The Uncertainty

We live in uncertain times. A few years ago, the conflicts and tensions in Israel/Palestine were guaranteed to make front-page news. Today the multi-faceted conflicts in Syria seem in another league. Libya and Iraq along with Afghanistan are virtually failed states. Egypt and Turkey have become less attractive tourist destinations while Tunisia has become a no-go area. Not long ago Al Qaeda was the major fear for the West, but today ISIS/Daesh has been committing atrocities across Europe.

I got a glimpse of major uncertainty from a man who had been part of the rear-guard at Dunkirk in May-June 1940. After fighting on for a further fortnight they were ordered to surrender and were marched to Germany. He was on forced labour in a German power-station at 7.00 a.m. on 6th June 1944 when a German (Communist) civilian prisoner told him in a whisper that the Allies had landed in Normandy. For more than four years, incarcerated and on a sub-standard diet, he had not known when or if he would see family or home again. History is littered with uncertainties for individuals, for families and for nations. I mention these international and historical uncertainties to put into context the uncertainties we have been living with in St Ninian's.

Last October, when Paul moved on to develop his ministry in hospital chaplaincy we appreciated how far we had come under his ministry and recognised that this was a huge gap to fill. In November, when the church heating system was diagnosed to be in a terminal condition we cringed at the early quotes we were getting and recognised this meant money we did not have. Thereafter, various parts of our electrical installation were condemned as dangerous and, without urgent remedial work costing thousands of pounds, we stood to forfeit our insurance cover. As we processed through the vacancy procedure it soon became apparent that major manse upgrading work would require to be completed before we would be allowed to call a new minister.

I want to reassure members and friends of St Ninian's that we are well served by servants and office-bearers of the church who have given vast amounts of energy, time and effort to address these problems and to ordering things as circumstances require. Professional guidance has been obtained for major electrical work, heating systems and architectural matters. Consultation has taken place with Hamilton Presbytery, the General Trustees of the Church of Scotland, the Convener of the URC Synod's Finance & Property Committee and CARTA (the Kirk's agency for Church Architecture and Art). Knowledge has been gathered of grant-giving agencies, along with their criteria and time-scales (and application forms as appropriate). The Property and Finance Committees have met frequently. A Steering Committee appointed by the Board co-ordinates their efforts. Day after day and week after week a variety of people are giving more than generously of their time, talents and energy. Organisations have been looking to their funds to find amounts that allow bits of work to be done and the process to continue.

As your Interim Moderator I feel privileged to have insight into all that is being addressed on behalf of the congregation, the community and the Kingdom of God, here in Stonehouse. I cannot guarantee we will make every deadline because much depends on outside bodies, but it will not be for lack of effort and commitment from St Ninian's personnel. So, if you are asked in the coming months to support some fund-raising efforts, please think generously.

We are in a waiting period in the vacancy procedure in that the Church Profile is advertised and we have had requests for copies, but with the deadline being the end of September it is early days for receipt of applications.

Alan

From Margaret Macgregor

Hi Folks,

Well here we are again, I feel I no sooner get one letter done and it's time for the next.

I gave you an update last time on the heating in the church; we had to switch it off for the summer months due to the cost of running it and unfortunately can't switch it back on due to damaged pipes. Unfortunately, it hasn't been the best of summers and we really appreciate the number of folks who turn out each Sunday. We are doing all we can to source some grants but also need to raise funds ourselves and I'm sorry if some folks feel we have the begging bowl out but needs must.

There are lots of fund raising events planned and I hope you will support at least some of them. These are not only planned to raise money but also to give folks a chance to socialise with one another.

We may need to make a discussion to hold our services in the hall in the near future but we will keep you updated as we come to know ourselves.

There are so many hoops to jump through and we feel as if it is one step forward and two back.

I would like to mention the folks in the steering committee Jillian Storrie, Bob Millar, Alec Pate, Jim Cowan, George Burns and Gavin Ferguson who have put in hours of work trying to keep things ticking over and work our way through quotes trying to source the best one for our needs. A big thank you to them all.

The church is not the only thing we have been concerned about as the manse also needed work done and it was felt we should bring it up to date while it was vacant. The manse needs to be up to standard before we can call a minister.

On that subject we have at the moment had five enquiries and requests for the profile but no formal applications, the closing date is the 30th September so please keep the nomination committee in your prayers.

Eric Hislop has been leading worship in church most Sundays and his services are much appreciated.

Some of our Sunday school teachers organized a Holiday Club on 8th, 10th and 12th of August and this was attended by over thirty children from P1 to P7 and what fun they had. Stewart Cutler came along and assisted and also led worship on Sunday 14th when the congregation were entertained by the children.

On behalf of the Session, I would like to thank them all for their hard work not only that week but during the year. We have a great team of folks leading our young people, the future of our church.

We have sadly had to say goodbye to some of our faithful members, Mrs Willy Hare sadly passed away on 1st July 2016, Mr Robert Mitchell has moved from Sorbie Drive to a home in Lenzie to be nearer his family and one of our elders Alison Kirkwood is moving to Moffat to be nearer her family. Alison will still be popping in now and again but we will be sorry to lose her. On the bright side we are welcoming Isobel Ann Black, better known to some as (Isobel Ann Hamilton) back into the congregation.

This has been a trying time for us all and your support is much appreciated, we are trying our best to do what we can, as quick as we can, but most of what has happened is out with our control, please keep us in your prayers and I'm sure God has plans for our future. With Faith it will all come right. I was given a gift of a place mat inscribed "keep the Faith, things will work out the way they are supposed to" and do you know they always do, maybe not the way you planned but they do work out.

God bless you all Margaret Session Clerk

IMPORTANT REMINDER ABOUT GIFT AID

In order to support the application for grants for the new heating system in the church we need to be seen to be promoting Gift Aid. (We can claim back 25% tax in every £1 gifted therefore making the donation £1.25. This really mounts up if everyone who pays tax ticks their donation for Gift Aid)

This process of increasing revenue has been highlighted to the congregation for many years however it is now extremely important that we all utilise this system as we give donations for the cause. If you are donating any monies

A blessing for new beginnings

In the out of the way places of the heart

Where your thoughts never think to wander

This beginning has been quietly forming

Waiting until you were ready to emerge

For a long time it has watched your desire

Feeling the emptiness growing inside you

Noticing how you willed yourself on

Still unable to leave what you had outgrown

It watched you play with the seduction of safety

And the grey promises that sameness whispered

Heard the waves of turmoil rise and relent

Wondered would you always live like this

Then the delight when your courage kindled

And out you stepped on to new ground

Your eyes young again with energy and dream

A path of plenitude opening before you

Though your destination is not quite clear

You can trust the promise of this opening

Unfurl yourself into the grace of beginning that is at one with your life's desire awaken your spirit to adventure

hold nothing back, learn to find ease in risk

soon you will be home in a new rhythm

for your soul senses the world that awaits you

CHURCH DIARIES - 2017

No delay this year with our little diaries, I already have them!!!! Usual price of £1.50 and all money raised goes to church funds so buy an extra couple for Christmas stocking fillers. They are handy in pocket or handbag and have all main church office bearers contact details.

Thanks Anne Law

THANK YOU

Anne Law and family would like to say thank you to everyone in St Ninian's for their support and sympathy way back in June when my Mum (Mrs Annie Kerr) died. She settled in Lindsayfield Lodge Care Home, East Kilbride 4 months after my Dad died and she received marvellous care and attention there. Mum always enjoyed her visits to St Ninian's, concerts, coffee mornings etc but especially the Burns Suppers. We all miss her terribly but feel blessed that she was with us for so many years and always encouraged us to do our best, to be honest and respectful of others. She lived for her family (all 50 of us) and had a very strong faith right to the end, and that has helped us as a family to say she had a good life well lived and is now at peace.

Thank you and God Bless

Coffee Morning

Our mid summer break has, like our sunshine, been and gone; and so it is now time to take over from our friends at Paterson Church. We are looking to meeting everyone again and dispensing tea, coffee, goodies and friendship starting on Tuesday 4th September for 10am - 11.30am.

We are always happy to be back and we really appreciate your faithfulness throughout the years. Next year we will be celebrating 40years of Coffee mornings. Quite an achievement!

We hope to continue until Tuesday 29th November 2016 ----- Weather permitting.

Craft Class

The Craft Class begins a new session on Tuesday 4th October 1.30pm – 3.30pm. The group looks forward to seeing everyone again and welcomes any new members who would enjoy meeting on a regular basis with other crafters to explore, learn and expand their skills in any area of art and craft work in a relaxed group setting.

Thoughts on Prayer

THOUGHTS ON MOUNTAIN TOPS

We all love a good moan – don't we? It doesn't matter what we moan about but a popular moan is about the weather! It's either too hot...or too cold...too wet....or not wet enough when we have to water the garden.

What we sometimes forget is that if it wasn't cold, we wouldn't appreciate and enjoy the warm weather.

Likewise in other areas unless we experience hardship and difficulty we won't really appreciate the good times.

We read in Luke's gospel about Peter, James and John when they went up the mountain with Jesus at the time of His transfiguration. They saw Moses and Elijah appear with Jesus. They wanted to stay there in that wonderful atmosphere but were told that unless they came back down they wouldn't appreciate what they had just experienced.

It's worthwhile then, next time we feel like having a moan about something that we can, if we think about it, appreciate the many varied situations we find ourselves in.

Ann Woods.

The Guild BE BOLD BE STRONG.

We have been recharging our batteries during the summer and are looking forward to going to St.Andrew's this year in September. We start back our monthly meetings with Taylor Fashions on the 12th September. It's £3.00 per ticket or pay at the door. There will be plenty bargains and Brian usually keeps us entertained. There will be home baking that night as well.

The 10th October will be Bernadette Murphy.

The 14th November is our Guest night and we are looking forward to having Irene Dick back to tell us interesting stories, singing and also home baking again.

10th December is our Christmas Dinner and it usually is a good night.

All the meetings start at 7.30pm and if you would like to come along and don't have transport please ask and someone will collect you and take you home.

We look forward to seeing old and new faces when we start back. Even if you are not a member of the church you can still come along to the meetings where you will be made very welcome.
See you all soon Wilma Johnston

Sunday School

Our new session has started and we will continue to use the Church of Scotland Spill the Beanz material.

We have a busy session lined up with lots of different events for the children to take part in and enjoy.

It has been decided to re-instate breakfast for the children on the third Sunday of each month. The first breakfast day will be 4th September.

Instead of a Movie night, there will be a series of events organised with the Community group. The first of these will be a games/quiz night arranged for 17th September.

The Sunday school will serve lunch on a regular basis. We did this successfully before the summer break and the children thoroughly enjoyed being involved in this venture. The next date will be 2nd October.

We have arranged a visit from the Puppet group who tell Bible stories using puppets – this is another popular event and will take place on 9th October.

On 6th November we will take the children round to Canderavon House. This visit is always enjoyed by both Residents and children.

We have already had visits from the Lego team, where Bible stories are told and the children 'build' the story with Lego blocks. This is very popular with the children and we have arranged another visit for this session on 20th November.

Other dates to remember are: Fund raising Bags4School. This will take place on 20th October.

The annual Pantomime outing to East Kilbride will be on Saturday 3rd December. This year's show is Pinocchio. If anyone is interested in booking a place, please speak to Rosemary Clark.

Further intimations on these events will be made in church.

The Team would like to thank all who looked after the children during the summer holiday and also the folks who bring the children along Sunday by Sunday – without the children there would be no Sunday school.

Kitega community centre in Uganda

This summer provided the opportunity for a big adventure for the Ramsay family. We spent 16 days at Kitega community centre in Uganda, helping out with the school for children with disabilities. It was a long 24 hour journey involving Bob's taxi, 2 flights and a very long car journey through heavy traffic in Kampala. We arrived in the middle of the annual VICOBA camp, which promotes and offers advice to people setting up small businesses within the local communities. The highlight of the camp is a campfire with a goat roast and the goat arrived shortly after us, alive and bleating on the back of a motorbike! Samuel and Nathanael were soon climbing trees and making friends with the local kids and it wasn't long before they were starting to learn a few words of Lugandan. Everyone was fascinated with their red hair and asked what chemicals they used to get it that colour!

The community centre fully lives up to its name and provides a school for children with disabilities during the day as well as training and support for the VICOBA groups and adult literacy classes in the evening. They also open their doors to the children in the community once the school has finished so that they can come and use the playground. The school provides schooling for 21 children who would struggle to attend mainstream schools. They are taught numeracy and literacy as well as vocational skills such as basket weaving.

One of the main aims of the centre is to show the community that these children should be valued in their own right rather than hidden away as had previously happened. The staff at the centre work with the families of these children to help them develop skills and businesses and use these relationships to help families develop a more positive attitude towards their disabled children.

The staff and the children at the centre love having visitors and all guests are welcomed with songs as well as given a rousing choral send-off when you are leaving. The centre is typified by huge smiles, welcoming hugs and appreciation and delight at any contributions that are made. Samuel and Nathanael made some very good friends and Mara just loved playing with the chickens! As soon as we left the centre, the children asked when we could go back and we are hoping to continue to build the links between Kitega and St Ninian's.

If anyone is interested in finding out more about the centre, visiting the centre as part of a team, or supporting the centre, please feel free to talk to me or Peter or visit the website at www.kitegacc.org

The HopeCafé
Lanarkshire

Hope Café continues to thrive here in Stonehouse and we are averaging around 30 customers every time we open the doors here at St Ninian's. There continues to be new faces engaging with the project which confirms the importance of the community café here in Stonehouse.

`We're all in this together`

As a gesture of goodwill The Hope Café has recently donated £1,000 towards the St Ninian's church heating fund which we hope expresses our gratitude as an organisation towards the community of St Ninian's. We hope through advertising and local community efforts St Ninian's are able to raise the large sum of money required to upgrade the heating system.

During the summer months as well as facilitating the community café within St Ninian's we delivered 2 full day, Wellness Recovery Action Plan (WRAP) workshops to 10 Hope Café volunteers and customers. Although the WRAP workshops main focus is on mental health recovery they are an excellent adaptable tool for anyone which encourages self-management of any life limiting condition.

Details of more mental health workshops shall be advertised in the church hall foyer notice board and on Facebook in coming months.

Please remember that The Hope Café is for everyone because everyone has mental health.

` Just because` you are mentally well doesn't mean Hope Café isn't for you.

Just Because

Just because I am a Christian

I'm not saying I'm clean living

I'm saying I was lost

Now I'm found and forgiven

Just because I am a Christian

I don't say it filled with pride

I'm saying that I fail

And need Christ to be my guide

Just because I am a Christian

I'm not saying I am strong

I'm professing that I'm weak
And need his help to carry on

Just because I am a Christian
I don't boast this filled with pride
I'm confessing that I stumble
And need God to be my guide

Just because I am a Christian
I'm not bragging of success
I'm aware of all my failings
And sometimes I am a mess
Just because I am a Christian
Doesn't mean I don't feel pain
But I have my friend to help me
So I call upon his name

Just because I am a Christian
Doesn't mean I've got life all`sussed`
It just simply means I'm faithful
To a father that I trust

Just because I am a Christian
Doesn't mean I'm holier than though
I'm just a simple sinner

Who received God`s grace somehow

Holiday Club

What a fantastic week we had at Holiday Club. We made the decision to cut it down to 3 days this year as we are struggling for adult helpers (if this is something you could help with please let us know as we will soon be organising next year). There was a family service on Sunday 14th where the parents could join us and see what the children had been up to. We were very lucky to have Stewart Cutler join us. His help and experience were invaluable and he very kindly agreed to lead our family service on the Sunday. It was great to see some new faces in the congregation too.

Our theme this year was Space Academy. It followed the Scripture Union holiday club programme and was based around the story of Daniel. The children learned all about Daniel and his friends, their journey and their trust in God. Our astronauts also made planet pinatas & space rockets (which they had to fit in and race), told jokes, said prayers, played games, danced, sang and ate a LOT of sweets.

When organising Holiday Club we aimed to ensure that all children, including those who had little to no church background, were able to identify with God and understand the story of Daniel. We also started the day with the Lord's Prayer, which many children didn't know. We had a really successful week with most children attending all 3 days.

If you would like to help next year, please see either myself or Nicola Hampton. You will be made most welcome.

Link Committee

Eric on a Sunday from the pulpit goes on about his 'holidays'; I feel I have done that about my retirement! For those of you who know me I am sure you will agree, as I announced I was going to retire from teaching over a year ago. For those of you who don't know me, I am now settling into retirement.

I began editing the Link magazine when Rev Tom Nelson left to move to Glasgow and I was only meant to cover in for a few months until the new minister came! Well here we are over 10 years later and we as a dedicated team, (Margaret Murray, Anne Frew, Lisa and now Carolyn McNally) all totally committed to overseeing our individual responsibilities have kept the Link magazine production ticking over for all these years. The time has flown by!

Over the years, several folks have come to me with ideas as to what else could be included in the magazine and ways to develop it further out in the community. So if this is something that you think you could help with then please speak to me and we can call a Link Committee meeting and take it from there. It is time to put this retirement stage to good use!!

Several years ago we also had a Link Magazine get-to-gether when we all met for a coffee evening to meet and chat and thank all our distributors for their support in delivering the magazine. Perhaps we will do this again one day?

Meanwhile we would like to thank Helen Young for her service as a distributor to the Link magazine as unfortunately she has had to hand in her notice, as she is now no longer able to deliver in the Mainsacre Drive district. We are glad Helen enjoyed the experience of being a distributor and we wish her well in all that she does in the future.

However we are now delighted to announce that Ann Horne who has recently moved to Birksburn Ave is now going to take over Helen's duties. We hope Ann enjoys meeting you and new friendships are formed.

A wee reminder for distributors to remember to put a note of your district number or your name on your envelope and the amount of the donations you receive. Once ready please hand over to Margaret Murray or myself. We will be in the vestibule on Sunday 18th September.

With many thanks for all your support,

Margaret McM and Margaret Murray

I just want to thank everyone who sent me flowers, cards and get well wishes during my recent short illness. Your thoughtfulness meant a lot to me.

Thank you John Limerick
